

Lookout Show`n Tell #16 – The Look-Outhouse

#16 in our series of "Lookout Essentials" is the look-outhouse. The ideal style is a room with fresh air and a view. This one fits the bill.

In the 1860s, Sir Thomas Crapper, a sanitary engineer (plumber) in London, invented the sliver-free oak wood toilet seat. He is our lookout trivia hero for this edition of Lookout Show`n Tell...

Ray Kresek
Fire Lookout Museum
Spokane, WA